Sandra Schennach, piano
Karl Eder, drums & vocals
Eduard Linshalm, bass
Alfred Kern, sax

JUMP THE CURB is a group of five that cherishes nineteen-forties and fifties swing, jazz, and R & B. Among our favourites / influences are Julia Lee, Ella Mae Morse, Etta James, Louis Jordan, Nat „King“ Cole, Anita O' Day, Billie Holiday, Ruth Brown - just to name a few. Being a rather small band, the music we play is lean and straightforward, with no frills - exactly the way our friends and listeners want it to be. Some of the music may be unknown to a wider public, but it's well-known tunes like „Fine Brown Frame“ or „Sentimental Journey“ that have continually, and unfailingly, inspired listening audiences and dancers alike. We play in clubs, at parties, and also at business events.

Our principle is to play swinging, jumping, feel-good music - with particular attention to the tastes and needs of Lindy Hop and Boogie dancers. So JUMP, LISTEN & SMILE!
